

3rd Continuous Seminar

Local Cooperatives and Initiatives for Social Issues Concerning Multiculturalism

The Role of Cooperation in a Vision for a New Multicultural Society

~Potential Directions for Multiculturalism and Cooperatives~

At our final seminar we will broaden our discussion to communities and workplaces, as we talk about a vision for a new society and the role of cooperation in a multicultural society in order to strive for a society that is built cooperatively by diverse residents.

Date: March 8th, 2020 Time: 1:00p.m.~ 5:00p.m.

Venue: Aichi Prefectural University Satellite Campus

Wink Aichi 15th floor (Nagoya-shi, Nakamura-ku, Meieki 4-28)

I . Explanation of the Objective: “The Possible Outlooks for Multiculturalism and Cooperatives”

Kanda Sumire – Researcher at Aichi Prefectural University Research Center for Multiculturalism
Researcher at Research Center for Community and Cooperatives

II Overview

① “The History and Summary of Cooperatives”

Kim Suyong – Ph.D. Candidate at Kinjyo Gakuin University

②. “The Development Towards Multiculturalism for Cooperatives”

Oohashi Michito – Multicultural Cohesion Manager

III Keynote “The History of Zainichi Koreans: Multiculturalism and Mutual Aid Between Compatriots

Lee Jeong Gwang – Deputy Director at NPO Korean Net Aichi

IV Case Studies

① Initiatives for Multicultural Care Giving

Wang Rong – Director at Project to Link Elderly Foreign Seniors to Care Giving

② Initiatives for Children with Roots to a Foreign Country

Kinjyo Nayara Natsumi – Director for “Brazil Tomo no kai”

③ Initiatives by Medical Consumers’ Cooperatives

Miwa Kenji – Manager at “Seikyo Yuyu Mura” and Filipino Care Giver at “Kimamatengu en”

V Discussion

“A Vision for a New Society and The Role of Cooperation in a Multicultural Society”

Panelists: Lee Jeong Gwang, Wang Rong, Kinjyo Nayara Natsumi, Miwa Kenji

Moderator: Oota Suguru – Mie Medical Welfare Consumers’ Cooperatives

VI Conclusion Mukai Shinobu – Managing Director for Research Center for Community and Cooperatives

Hosted by:

Aichi Prefectural University

Research Center for Multiculturalism

Research Center for Community and Cooperation

Registration by Email : registration_csri@for.aichi-pu.ac.jp

Inquiry: 0561-76-8824 (You cannot register by phone)

※Seminar is held in Japanese. If you need interpreting, please tell us this in your registration email.